AHMAD CAVER — GAME DAY VLOG

CORE IDEA

A short cinematic game-day story that introduces Ahmad through basketball first — then lets people meet the person behind the player.

FEEL

Natural · Cinematic · Personal · Confident
Not over-produced. Not a generic highlight video.

THE MAIN RULE

We're not filming a basketball game.
We're introducing Ahmad Caver through a basketball game.

1 ARRIVAL / HOOK

Goal: Pull the viewer into Ahmad's day immediately.
Capture: Ahmad arriving at the arena · Walking toward / into the venue · Shoes / bag / headphones / details · Natural interactions · 1–2 quick lines to camera before the game
Simple prompt: "What's the mindset going into tonight?"
Opening style: Quick cinematic shots + Ahmad's voice over them.

2 PRE-GAME

Goal: Build anticipation.
Capture: Stepping onto the court · Warmups · Shooting routine · Stretching / preparation · Teammate interactions · Quiet focused moments · Close-ups + wide arena shots
Story: The energy slowly builds toward tip-off.

3 THE GAME

Goal: Show Ahmad as the athlete.
Capture: Best plays · Reactions · Defense / offense · Bench moments · Crowd / atmosphere · Scoreboard / game details · Emotional moments
Edit: Do not make this the entire vlog. Use the game as the peak of the story.

4 AFTER THE GAME

Goal: Transition from basketball player → person.
First, let Ahmad react naturally to the game.
Questions: "How did that one feel?" · "What stood out to you tonight?" · "What's the mindset after a game like this?"
Keep answers natural and short.

5 MEET AHMAD

Goal: Give viewers a reason to follow beyond tonight.
More relaxed, off-court conversation.
Topics:

- Who is Ahmad Caver?
- Where is he from?
- How long has basketball been part of his life?
- What keeps him hungry?
- What does he still enjoy about the game?
- What does he enjoy outside basketball?
- What side of himself does he want people to see?
- What can people expect from his future content?

Important: This should feel like a conversation — not an interview.

6 ENDING / NEXT CHAPTER

Finish with a short statement from Ahmad that creates continuation.
Example direction: "This is only the beginning. You'll see a lot more this season."
Then: Final cinematic shots · Walk away / arena exit · EA Visuals × Ahmad Caver

FINAL OUTPUTS

YouTube vlog · Target: 4–7 minutes
Flow: Arrival → Pre-game → Warmups → Game → Post-game → Personal Intro → What's Next

Instagram Reel · Target: 30–60 seconds
Fast cinematic version of the same story: Arrival → Preparation → Best Game Moments → Ahmad Personality → Strong Closing Line
