Ahmad Caver — Game Day Vlog

Oct 26, 2026 · @Mr. Eran Avisrur

GAME DAY / FIRST CHAPTER

Core idea

A short cinematic game-day story that introduces Ahmad through basketball first — then lets people meet the person behind the player.

Feel

Natural · Cinematic · Personal · Confident

Not over-produced. Not a generic highlight video.

1 — Arrival / Hook

Goal: Pull the viewer into Ahmad's day immediately.

Capture

- Ahmad arriving at the arena
- Walking toward / into the venue
- Shoes / bag / headphones / details
- Natural interactions
- 1–2 quick lines to camera before the game

Simple prompt: "What's the mindset going into tonight?"

Opening style: Quick cinematic shots + Ahmad's voice over them.

2 — Pre-game

Goal: Build anticipation.

Capture

- Stepping onto the court
- Warmups
- Shooting routine
- Stretching / preparation

- Teammate interactions
- Quiet focused moments
- Close-ups + wide arena shots

Story: The energy slowly builds toward tip-off.

3 — The game

Goal: Show Ahmad as the athlete.

Capture

- Best plays
- Reactions
- Defense / offense
- Bench moments
- Crowd / atmosphere
- Scoreboard / game details
- Emotional moments

Edit: Do not make this the entire vlog. Use the game as the peak of the story.

4 — After the game

Goal: Transition from basketball player → person.

First, let Ahmad react naturally to the game.

Questions

- "How did that one feel?"
- "What stood out to you tonight?"
- "What's the mindset after a game like this?"

Keep answers natural and short.

5 — Meet Ahmad

Goal: Give viewers a reason to follow beyond tonight.

More relaxed, off-court conversation.

Topics

- Who is Ahmad Caver?

- Where is he from?
- How long has basketball been part of his life?
- What keeps him hungry?
- What does he still enjoy about the game?
- What does he enjoy outside basketball?
- What side of himself does he want people to see?
- What can people expect from his future content?

Important: This should feel like a conversation — not an interview.

6 — Ending / Next chapter

Finish with a short statement from Ahmad that creates continuation.

Example direction: "This is only the beginning. You'll see a lot more this season."

Then:

- Final cinematic shots
- Walk away / arena exit
- EA Visuals × Ahmad Caver

Final outputs

YouTube vlog. Target: 4–7 minutes. Flow: Arrival → Pre-game → Warmups → Game → Post-game → Personal Intro → What's Next

Instagram Reel. Target: 30–60 seconds. Fast cinematic version of the same story: Arrival → Preparation → Best Game Moments → Ahmad Personality → Strong Closing Line

The main rule

We're not filming a basketball game. We're introducing Ahmad Caver through a basketball game.
